

I support XM radio. One of the reasons I keep it is for instant traffic and weather. I get tired of all the commercials and garbage on regular radio. If I choose to pay for service then that is my business. Regular radio is unhappy due to potential advertising dollar loss. I didn't realize competition was a bad thing. Leave XM alone...